Putting Movement Back Into Education

"That 1 second, turns into 1 minute and then that 1 minute turns into 1 hour. Eventually, that 1 hour turns into 1 week, then 1 month, then 1 year. Then that 1 year turns into 1 lifetime. Your lifetime. Embrace your 1-second in life, don't take your life for granted. Achieve GREATNESS."

MORE ABOUT JOEY

Joey Negron is a charismatic, passionate behavioral specialist that takes on the ever-growing population with mental health issues with the same determined, humorous, "try it again" approach he brings to his life and his career.

"I do the same thing the Super Nanny does, but the only difference is that I am cooler than she is!"

In 2007, Joey published his first book, a memoir titled, 1ZERO9 (One Zero Nine) to help today's youth with ongoing issues in society such as teenage pregnancy, dealing with death, and being a father.

Joey was born and raised in Reading,

Pennsylvania. He received his bachelor's degree at Saint Peter's College and his Masters of Social Work Degree at Marywood University.

Joey is determined to push others to "Step Up" instead of backing down to life's challenges and goals.

Topics include, but are not limited to:

- Teen Pregnancy
- Resiliency
- Education
- Mental Health Awareness
- Overcoming Adversity
- Family
- Parenting
